Stephen Schnurr has been Director of Music for Saint Paul Catholic Church, Valparaiso, Indiana, since 1990. He has led the church's adult choir on tours of Italy, Spain, Portugal, Ireland, Northern Ireland, Poland, the Czech Republic, Germany, and Austria, with performances in Rome, Dublin, Madrid, Barcelona, Warsaw, Krakow, Prague, and Vienna, including a performance for Saint John Paul, II. In 2017, his middle school choir made a pilgrimage to Rome, where they sang for New Year's Day Mass with Pope Francis at Saint Peter's Basilica. Stephen is also Editor of The Diapason, an international monthly journal devoted to the organ, carillon, harpsichord, and choral music. In 2005 and 2009, with Dennis Northway, he published Pipe Organs of Chicago, a two-volume organ atlas of metropolitan Chicago, the largest publication of its kind in the United States. In 2013, he published Organs of Oberlin, chronicling the instruments of Oberlin Conservatory and the town of Oberlin, Ohio. As a recitalist, he has played programs throughout the United States, as well as in Germany, England, Northern Ireland, and Poland. He has presented recitals for ten national conventions of the Organ Historical Society and one national convention of the National Association of Pastoral Musicians.
